Summary of findings

Overall summary

Wilton Lodge is a residential care home providing personal care and support for up to 49 older people and people living with dementia. At the time of the inspection 43 people were using the service.

We found the following examples of good practice.

Visitors temperatures were taken, and track and trace information required before entry.

Each COVID positive resident had a butterfly on their door identifying they were being barrier nursed.

Staff worked on a designated floor of the home and with designated residents.

Detailed findings

Background to this inspection

We carried out this inspection under Section 60 of the Health and Social Care Act 2008 as part of our regulatory functions. This inspection was planned to check whether the provider is meeting the legal requirements and regulations associated with the Health and Social Care Act 2008.

As part of CQC's response to care homes with outbreaks of coronavirus, we are conducting reviews to ensure that Infection Prevention and Control (IPC) practice was safe and the service was compliant with IPC measures. This was a targeted inspection looking at the IPC practices the provider has in place.

This inspection took place on 17 December 2020 and was announced.

Is the service safe?
