Summary of findings

Overall summary

Ryhope Manor Care Home accommodates up to 31 people with residential care needs in a purpose-built building. On the day of our inspection, 26 people were using the service.

We found the following examples of good practice:

- Appropriate measures were in place at the entrance and in the home to reduce the risk of infection.
- Social distancing rules were being complied with. Some minor changes had been made to the layout of furniture to encourage and support social distancing.
- The provider was following national guidance for anyone moving into the home and admissions were carried out safely.
- People were supported to keep in touch with their family members via video or telephone calls. The provider was developing ways to safely support visits in line with the latest guidance.
- Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) was appropriately stored, used and disposed of. Staff had undertaken additional training in infection prevention and control and regular audits were carried out.
- Staffing levels had been maintained during the recent outbreak with the support of agency staff.

Detailed findings

Background to this inspection

We carried out this inspection under Section 60 of the Health and Social Care Act 2008 as part of our regulatory functions. This inspection was planned to check whether the provider is meeting the legal requirements and regulations associated with the Health and Social Care Act 2008.

As part of CQC's response to care homes with outbreaks of coronavirus, we are conducting reviews to ensure that the Infection Prevention and Control practice was safe and the service was compliant with IPC measures. This was a targeted inspection looking at the IPC practices the provider has in place.

This inspection took place on 11 December 2020 and was announced.
